HAWKER'S HOMECOMING.

LONDON, May 28. The airmen's arrival saw street crowds unequalled since armistice day. Dense masses of people held up the thoroughfare where Hawker descended from his carriage. Mount ed constables slowly pushed a way through, completing his journey to the Aero Club, Hawker himself riding bareheaded on horseback. The Australians acting as escort to Grieve linked hands and cleared a way by main, force. Similar scenes of enthusiasm were enacted along the whole route from Portland Place, Langham Place, and Regent Street to the club. Dominion soldiers used the lamp standards throughout the route as seats. In New Burlington Street Hawker was lifted from his horse and carried shoulder high inch by inch into the club. Grieve was then only just arriving at this street Ultimately he also was carried over the last stage of his journey.

part of the Burns memorials. Gavin Hamilton, the lawyer, was buried in Mauchline kirkyard, with nothing to indicate that "here Gavin sleeps, whom canting wretches blam'd," and local tradition has it that a nameless grave was the lawyer's own wish. The members of the Partick Burns Club, however, and few to-day will disagree with them,-think that the grave of Burns' friend should be marked for the benefit of the many Burns' pilgrims to Mauchline,-the grave of one

The miners are now resenting the suggestion that they are a downtrodden race, who cannot obtain necessaries of life, and are so badly housed that they cannot practise the decencies of life. The wives are especially angry upon the latter point. They say that it is making them ridiculous in the eyes of their neighbours who know the real facts. The result is that many members of Parliament are receiving letters from their miner constituents, protesting against Mr. Smillie's absurd distortions.

COMMERCE IN SIBERIA

Tell. 345.

With the approval by the Cabinet Council of the Omsk government of the constitution of the Provisional Trade and Industrial Chambers, the Council of the Congress of Trade and Industry, has distributed to all trade and industrial organizations instructions concerning the enforcement of the rules of the Provisional Trade and Industrial Chambers. According to these instructions, the Chamber of Commerce of city in which the Provisional Chamber is to be established, is required to reckon the number of 'all trade and industrial organizations existing in that district and to convoke a commission composed of the representatives of the executive committees of these organizations. The number of the members of the new Commission is to be determined at discretion of the Chamber of Commerce. The new Commission is to fix the number of the members of the Provisional Chamber.

MISSING ARCTIC STORES.

A story of sufferings in the Arctic was related at Portsmouth Police Court on April 15 telegraphs the Daily Chronicle correspondent, when Lieut. Walter Thomas Ryan, O.B.E., R.N.R., and Thomas Eynon Bailey, skipper, R.N.R., late H.M.S. flinto, were charged with removing from a wreck certain stores and converting them to their own use.

It was stated that in the winter of 1917-18 the steamship Glodale, on a time charter to the Hudson Bay Company, in very rough weather lost her rudder in the vicinity of Crogan Point, Lapland, and ultimately became a total wreck. Several tugs were near, and it was alleged that Ryan, in command, and Bailey, the skipper of one of the tugs. removed a quantity of stores from the wreck and sold them in Portsmouta for £67. Ryan stated that the back of the

Any one suggesting "political in- 11, 16d. feriority" in the Australians as a people has a tough proposition to maintain. They alone in the Empire have kept the flag of the true democracy flying. They nailed it to the mast when, in spite of the blandishments and intrigues of Mr. Hughes, they twice turned down Conscription. This was an un popular thing to do, and privately the sort of Imperialist 'we don't admire deemed! them wrong to do it, but he didn't or wasn't allowed to say so openly. While sticking to the principle, they proved that it wasn't on account any refuctance to "do their bit" by sending 330,000 men overseas, of whom 57,000 did not return. Recently we have seen how they tackle situations that call for action rather than for argument. Singing "Australia will be there," a Brisbane mob set forth to clean out a local nest of Bolshevism. They have always known what they wanted (a virtue in politics) and seen to it that they got it, from the time of the "angry mob" mentioned by Sir Harry Parkes in 1888, up to the numerous demonstrations of this war. They are a politically-minded people, and the future of our Imperial Commonwealth will not be impaired by conceding them a larger voice in the decision of its policy.

IN WORKHOUSE WITH £500.

War Bonds amounting to $420; scrip valued at $370, and $10 in cash. were found in the possession of Wilham Comningham, aged 70, a native of Newconstle, who was brought unconscious to the Oswestry Workhouse on March 30 and died on April 2: His sister afterwards visited the work? house, and paid oli expenses,

IT LIVING IN TWO ROOMS.

An example of overcrowding was quested in Strittord Police Court Perently.

Finily Radph, widow, Brandonread, Walthamstian, was summoned for acting as fester-mother to a child without obtaining a permit, and aninspector said she occupied two rooms with nine whilt relatives. The wousin was fined 40s.

ESCALATORS AT WATERLOO.

A novel feature of the esculators which have been installed as Water; loo, to provide access between the South-Western main and don't lines. and the City Railway, is the fixed stairway standing between the ascending and descending staircases. The motors can be instantly stopped by the attendant without res course to the switchboard.

It is estimated that the new station at Westerlier will be completed in all its beautibes in about 12 months.

HAT: AGED 68.

Twenty-screp years old many be a georgiage for a straw ima, but it is but a juvenile compared to a lat that has seen 68 years' service, and which is worn daily by an elderly man who works in a Government office not a great distance, as the crew flies, from Parliament-square.

This hat is of the beaver type, and has been handed down to the present proud wearer by his grandather. The hat is said to look all its 68 years, but has stood the test of time as no modern has could do.

R.M.S.P. RECORD IN THE WAR.

Like most other steamship lines, the Royal Mail Steam Packet Com? pany has an admirable war record: Fourteen of the company's steam? ers were employed as troopships, and five others saw service at the Pare dunelles. Eight were equipped as hospital ships, one of which, the As: furius, was torpedoed with the loss of 45 lives. The Alconture, ope of the six R.M.S.P. steamers used as ... merchant cruisers, sank the German raider Grief, but was herself sunk in the action. Four of the company's vessels were destroyed by German miders in the early part of the war, and five others were torpedoed and sunk by subnaurines.

SOME COAT!

So much for hats. But here comes a correspondent who possesses an overcoat which he has worn in the inclement months for the past forty. or more years, and "it still looks newer and fresher than other coats made many years later."

It was made in the Great Exhibition year, 1851, by the master tailor of the Carbineer regiment, for an officer, whose valet the present, wearer was, and to whom it was bequeathed after ten years' wear. I was taken to Mr. Poole, the wellknown tailor, to be copied, but, alass, no such cloth, even in 1868, was to be found to equal that remarkable cout. It was the last of the Mohicans in coats. And the present wearer is proudest when he done it. with feet shod in a pair of shooting. boots given to him 50 years ago.

SMOKING IN CHURCH.

The suggestion by 11 of the congregation of St. James's, Bermondsey, that smoking should be allowed in church will doubtless have caused many good folk to hold up their hands in horror, but, of course, in the good old days smoking in church was quite a common practice.

In fact, prior to the visit of James I. to Cumbridge University in 1615, the .Vice-Chancellor issued a notice to the students enjoining that " noe graduate, scholler or student of this universities presume to take tobacco in Saint Marie's churche uppon payne of final expillinge the univer-

Sir Wulter Scott, too, in the "Heart of Middothian," refers to an important personage who smoked during the whole of the sermon tobacco borrowed from other worship

On arrival at King's Cross Station. which was densely thronged, Mr. Hawker and Capt. Grieve got one of the most remarkable ovations ever given to any.

They were seized by a body of Australian diggers and carried shoulder-high into Euston Road, They were crowned with fouch hats, an Australian custom, con-ferring the highest popular honour. The huge crowds assembled at Euston Road at first did not recognise the airmen in Australian hats. Then they gave the two airiffen a tremendous ovation. The nirmen were placed in an open car which proceeded slowly, along an arranged cours, to the Royal Acro Club.

It was intended to hold a civic reception, with the Mayor present at the Mation, together with a large number of histinguished military men and civilians but the Australians, declaring it was " Australia's Day " took the affair entirely into their own hands.

COLD SHOULDER TO THE AUSTRALIAN SOLDIER.

Under the above headings "A Bad Boy" writes in the Sydney Sun of March 14:

As a bad Australian who has twice dodged the gangway picquet and spent shore leave in Colombo, let me speak my piece concerning the bold, bad Digger who is charged with locting in Colombo. Of the many thousands of Australian troops touching at Colombo I venture to say that the riotous element represents a very small percentage indeed.

With his "wad" of ten or twenty pounds the average "Aussie" is careless of his money. He buys not for himself, and having but a very elementary knowledge of values, he rapidly tires of argument and pays treble the value of the article.

Touts lie in wait for him at every lamp post. In five minutes he has a waiting platoon, the eyes of each member skinned for his rupees. For a time he regards the situation as highly humorous, but finding that the hire of a gharry does not rid him of the nuisance, he tries, in good Australian, to let the native know that his presence is disturbing th

CLEARING UP.

Must Australians themselves clean up Colombo as they did the lewd and licentious Cairo? Let "authority" in Colombo remove forthwith the children who openly canvas for clients to visit the infamous houses of its native quarters. It seems impossible for them to fix some standard of commercial honesty on its native traders. THE LIGHTER SIDE.

That keen appreciation of the lighter side of things still exists in Ireland, despite political troubles, is exemplified by the following comment from the Cork Constitution. Among "the strangest of immigrants that visited these islands during the great war, and now appears to be domiciled here, is the Nearly Girl or Miss-oo-Misses. She is very widely distributed, and may be seen in large numbers any bright morning on the busy highways of our great cities. Whence she came is not very clear. She is nearly always engaged and nearly marries. Her hair is nearly auburn, her complexion nearly natural, her hands nearly clean, her jewels nearly genuine, her conversation nearly normal, and her manners nearly tolerable. Her fur coat is nearly real, her blouse nearly pneumonic, her skirt nearly decorous, her stockings nearly silk, while she is, wellnot quite.

day. The morning play was reported June 18. in these columns yesterday. , in the afternoon the Garrison secored 134, Mann and Baines of the R.G.A. with 25 each being the chief June 25.

· Ponsonby Fane's XII scored 1111 for 5 wickets in their second venture. A "sporting declaration" was then made, leaving the Garrison team 84 to score to win. Eight wickets were down for $3 runs of which 31 were scored by the R.E. player Pascall Stumps were then drawn, the Garrison team having the advantage on the first innings. The best batting of the match was done by Stapleton with well played contributions of 23 and 42. Sharman took the place of Mann in the afternoon, the latter being indisposed. Scores:-
